Association
Meeting Held Thurs.

The Association Meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held Thursday evening in the auditorium with the entire Y. W. college membership in attendance. The meeting was called to order by the president, Maude Rae Smith. The secretary, Sara Ann Chandler, read the minutes of the preceding meeting which were approved as read. The president asked for reports of activities from some of the Cabinet members, among which were the Vesper and World Fellowship Chairmen. A report of the Race Relations Group held this spring in Richmond was given by one of the girls. A general open discussion was held from the floor and suggestions for a better campus spirit were asked for.

Cotillion Club To Honor Seniors

Bob Riley's Orchestra Will Furnish Music

The Cotillion Club of Mary Washington College requests the pleasure of your company at the Spring Formal Saturday evening, April twenty-ninth R. S. V. P. Monroe Hall

One hundred bids such as the facsimile printed above have been issued, and plans are well under way for an elaborate ball, to be given in honor of Cotillion Club members who are in this year's graduating class. Helen Carter, Sara Ann Chandler, Nancy Herr, Jeanne Johnson, Mildred Powell, Miriam Purcell, and Maude Rae Smith constitute the list of feted members.

After the dance, the organization will entertain at a mid-night supper in Seacobeck Hall.

Bob Riley's well-known dance orchestra has been engaged for the affair. He will come here from a Philadelphia engagement.

Dominating the decorations will be a maritime aspect, giving the dance an air of taking place aboard ship. Life preservers and anchors will hang on the railing of the gymnasium, while abstract murals of fantastic marine exhibits will line the walls. Deck chairs will be conveniently placed on the balcony.

In keeping with the sea-going motif, the figure is tentatively scheduled to be in the form of an anchor. It will be led by Miss Virginia Fiske and Miss Jackie Edge, president and vice-president, respectively, of the club.

Members of the faculty, other than the sponsors, Miss Lilla Turman and Mr. Ronald Faulkner, expected to be in attendance are: Dr. and Mrs. Caverlee, Miss Irene Lundy, Miss Elizabeth Tribble, Dr. Vogelsback, and Mr. and Mrs. Woodward.

Complimentary bids were sent to Mrs. Nina Bushnell, Dean of Women and sponsor of the German club, Miss Frances Brooks, president of the German club; Adine Goodlow, Queen of May, and her Maid of Honor, Miriam Carpenter; Dr. Combs, Dr. Young, Mrs. Mooney, and Mrs. Cremer.

About 130 girls and approximately 350 boys are eagerly anticipating this delightful event.

George Washington Hall Dedicated At Impressive Ceremony

Dr. Combs, Mr. Goolrick and Governor Price Speak Before Throng

Now nearing completion is the new administration building, which will be called George Washington Hall. Being the largest women's college in Virginia, Mary Washington has been fortunate in securing within the last few years, several new buildings on our campus. The latest addition is George Washington Hall. With the cornerstone laid yesterday, it will only be a short time now before the building will be ready for use. Costing approximately $320,000, Washington Hall will contain the administration office, departmental offices, some class rooms, music practice rooms, and an auditorium with a seating capacity of 1,614.

Modern Equipment

The auditorium will contain a stage equipped for the most elaborate productions and fully furnished with modern devices for handling scenery and settings. The building will also include a spacious roof garden and a large recreation room.

Being named for General George Washington, the Father of His Country, who is so closely associated with Fredericksburg and this section, Washington Hall will be the largest and most impressive structure on the campus.

Plans For May Day Progressing Rapidly

Revised May Court Announced Recently

The annual May Day celebration is scheduled for May 6th. An interesting and varied program is being planned. Under the direction of the physical education department dances and stunts will be presented, while the college Glee Club will contribute vocal selections.

In the afternoon Adine Goodloe, Queen of the May, will be crowned. The following girls compose her court:

Maid of Honor—Miriam Carpenter.

Maids—Peggy Austin, Martha Lee Bennett, Frances Bolen, Eulais Bowling, Frances Brooks, Gretchen Bubenza, Eloise Coverlee, Eugenia Clarke, Margaret Clark, Dorothy Cobb, Jackie Copeland, Virginia Fiske, Jo Lee Fleet, Helen Fulmer, Barbara Gaines, Sarah Glover, Jeanne Johnson, Juanita Lassiter, Margaret McCulloch, Nancy Moseley, Doris O'Brien, Beverly Roberts, Rosella Tuck, Dorothy Vernon.

Garland Bearers—Edith Beamer, Jane Hatcher, Virginia Henderson, Betty Whitaker.

Flower Girls—Ann Hughes, Dorothy McNicholas.

Crown Bearer—Annette Hodnett.

Pat Peterson Plans Program Luck, Laughs, Dancing, Drama

Tomorrow night from 7:30 until 10:15 the Freshman class is sponsoring its benefit in the form of a carnival. Under the excellent guidance of Mary Estes, Freshman Commissioner and Pat Peterson, class president, plans for the affair are nearly completed. The following committees have been actively working: Skit, Manny Black, Dot Harrington; Crazy House, Kitty Benda; Fresh House, Leslie Law; Grab Bag, Midge Clapp; Puppet Show, Gracie Curetan; Bingo, Barbara Apple; Decoration, Nancy Brooker; Advertisement, Sara Dodd; Ticket, Adele Barr; Popsicles, Margie Smith; Drinks, Sally Phyllis; Hot dogs, Phyllis Thompson; Cake and Candy, Betty Bowers, Lois Bowman, Ruth Duffy; Main Feature, Shirley Norwood; Dance Chorus, Winnie Leavitt.

A large cake will be given away as a door prize.

"Swing"

The main event of the evening will feature versatile talents in singing and dancing, and promises to be most entertaining with its theme of "Swing."

Orchestra!

The college orchestra will officiate and furnish music for dancing.

The Carnival comes as a result of much planning and preparation and will be an event of the year no one will want to miss.

Dramatic Club Chooses "Twelfth Night" For Commencement Play

Leven Houston Will Feature Own Compositions At Glee Club Recital

Leven Houston of Fredericksburg will be featured as soloist at the next glee club recital to be held May seventh. Mr. Huston has written a number especially dedicated to the Mary Washington Glee Club and his composition will be sung by the club members at the recital.

The Glee Club which has been unusually active this year will contribute to the May Day festivities.

Cast To Be Picked From Senior Class And Dramatic Club

As its final play of the year the Dramatic Club has chosen Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. The cast will be selected from the Mary Washington Players and members of the Senior Class. The version which is being put on was written by the popular playwright, Orson Welles when he was only 17 years of age. It is accepted as one of the best and was recently presented on Broadway.

The play is scheduled to be given the week before Graduation. The settings will be authentically Shakespearian.

EDITORIAL

The Carnival of the Class of '42 is scheduled for tomorrow night. Long hours of planning and preparation have been spent on this one opportunity of the year for all the Freshmen to do their stuff. We, as the largest Freshman class this college has ever contained, hope that this will be the biggest and best Carnival yet. BUT, we need the support of the whole student body. Come on, help us as you all have been helped, and start us out on the road to success.

"Pat" Peterson

This Year's Prexy

"Pat" Peterson, our Freshman class President, is a girl liked and admired by everyone. "Pat" is 17 years old and comes from Hopewell, Virginia. "Pat" led a rather active life in High School. She was a cheerleader for two years, played basketball for four years, and was on the softball team. "Pat" was Vice President of the Student Government one year and Secretary and Treasurer for one year. She was Class President for two years and Vice President in her Senior year. Being president of the French Circle, "Pat" was also a member of the Dramatic Club and the Sidney Lanier Literary Society.

"Pat" has a hobby like the rest of us, but her's is a little different from the ordinary. She saves elephants and her collection now amounts to 500.

Here at Mary Washington College "Pat" is a member of the Y. W. C. A., The Leader's Club, and, as you all know, is President of our Freshman Class.

Come One Come All

It's here!—the most gala, fun-giving event of the year, packed full of music, excitement, and fun, the freshman carnival is here tomorrow night. You can't, you mustn't miss it! Why? Because it's all of the thrills, fun, music and excitement of a year packed and jammed and rolled into one evening. Dancing—with somewhere in the course of the evening a floor show, featuring a "school of swing" with all of the latest song hits and the drawing of the name of the lucky winner of the cake.

You want a thrill—huh? Then try the dark passage that leads to the mysterious house. Watch out!
You want to laugh? Then wander into the freak house and hold your sides. The grab bag offers suspense to those who seek it as the puppet show offers drama, tense, exciting, blood-curdling drama. And still for those who like to take a chance, there's bingo B-12 1-27!!

It's all here, dark mysterious, exciting drama side-splitting laughs, syncopated rhythm, the blood stirring chant of the bingo caller, all that you've ever associated with carnivals in the maddest gayest hit of the season. Let's go! We'll meet you at the carnival tomorrow night. Hang on to your hats!

"Honey" Henderson

—Next Year's Prexy

Virginia "Honey" Henderson is our choice for next year's class president. "Honey" is 5 feet 3½ inches tall, has green eyes and freckles. She is 17 years old and hails from Richmond. A graduate of John Marshall High School,
"Honey" claims she studied 'up a breeze' while in school. She was vice-president of her Senior class of 700. She also was a member of the Harwood Literary Society, a scholastic public speaking organization, the Dramatic Club, the Junior Spanish Society, and was the sponsor of Company E of the R. O. T. C. unit. She played hockey while in high school, "but," incidentally, she added, "I never made the team." Her hobby is collecting pictures, but she tells me she has left them all at home.

"Honey" has spent her summers traveling. Among the many places she has been are: Maine, New Haven, Connecticut, St. Louis, Mo., Chicago, New York, Philadelphia.
"But the height of my ambition is to go to Europe. And I hope to go to California this summer."

"Honey" is a member of the Y.
W. C. A., the Commercial Club, and the Cotillion Club here at Mary Washington College.

KEY HOLE KOMMENTS

Town boys seemed to take over the place Sunday night, but of course they always get their little fling.

Leonard Cox and Emmion Smith and Harvey and Bunny are old stuff by now. Unlike his brother, Gordon Cox believes variety is the spice of life. You can see him any week-end night with a different girl.

Marge McCulloch and Grundy didn't seem to be doing so badly Sunday night when I saw them. Marge was dating Arthur Jennings and Grundy had Julian Smith.

Sure, all movie stars get fan mail, but they all can't get a bid to the Cotillion. Haven't you heard about those three dignified Seniors who sent bids to Robert Taylor, Tyrone Power and Don Ameche? One of them specified what kind of flowers she wanted, too. If they should come, how about turning it into a girl-break dance. If you break me, I'll break your neck.

I don't know all the advantages of a correspondence course, but correspondence in itself brought a couple of girls in Ball new men. It seems that they obtained the names of some boys in a neighboring college, began writing them, and lo and behold! the boys were here this week-end. Where did you say you got those college rosters, girls?

Max Brown seems to get around, but he can't come up to Walter J. I hear he's dating a different girl every night now.

Who says history doesn't repeat itself? Grant may have taken Richmond, but Alice Hodges and Barbara Gaines seem to be taking it right now. Connie and Sara Anne are old hands as far as Richmond is concerned.

Where was Buddy Buckley Sunday night? Adelaide was probably "feeling kinda blue and kinda homesome."

Kitty has a real excuse for going to Richmond on week-ends now. Grump's in the hospital. It sounds fishy, but she has the statistics.

What music loving recent senior expressed the desire that no one speak to her on campus since it interrupted her train of thought?

Virginia Scheiborn and Jimmie Monroe, "home town fellows" were seen together last week-end. Wonder if Easter had anything to do with this?

"The Bunny Ball" held at Martinsburg, W. Va., helped Anne Miller and Percy Smith out, so we are told.

Mike Forrest of R. M. C. can't be kept away from M. W. C. Sis Cooper is the answer to this.

Among M. W. C. girls seen at Sigma Nu Fraternity at U. of Va. during Easter were Marjorie Smith, "Mac" McGavock and Tess Wilkins.

Kitty Hundley, have you learned to roller skate yet?

Last week-end Midge Clapp trucks to Washington to a dance; this week it's Hampden Sidney, and next V. P. I. How do you do it Midge?

Dot Lewis is one of these girls who can't find a man to suit her. Come on fellows.

Dot Adams, Jamie Redwood and Nancy Mosley are planning on attending the dance at Hampden Sidney.

Tenny Tatum has at last found her real love. Come on, tell us his name.

Gordon Cox is again seen on the hill on Sunday nights. Wonder what brings him up?

Lillian Turner received an invitation, from a boy she met Easter, to the June dances at V. P. I. These Freshmen how they do get around.

We see that Mike Hall was up here last Friday nite to see Lucille Dettor—Easter vacation was a long time to wait.

Did you see that wonderful picture Faie Livermann was waving in the faces of all of us last Sunday? Now which one is it, Faie?

Have Kay and Johnny had a quarrel? We hope by this time that everything is settled again.

Could the Spring be reviving old romances this year. Anyway Bapple was seen with her ex-Syd from the U. of Richmond last Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Nancy Brooker, we hear, is now corresponding with a young Army man from Honolulu. Good luck, Nancy.

"Lib" Manning has completely captured the charms of Ernie? Midge Matthews, have you gotten that letter from John yet?

Lucille Dettor says she had a marvelous time at Annapolis last week-end. Could it be a change of heart, Cile?

It seems that everything is Okey Dokey between Honey Henderson and Tom again.

Since college fraternities are supported by undergraduate assessments, the total tax (now 5 per cent, eventually 9 per cent) on student employees is borne entirely by its undergraduates. The employee's share (now 1 per cent, eventually 3 per cent) falls directly on those undergraduates least able to afford it, who are working their way through college.

Carnival—

May Day!

Horse Show—

Spring Play!

With June just around the corner, we begin to realize what a lot of things there are to accomplish in the next month. It means getting down to hard work and besides that packing the next few weeks fill up all the activities we can. Now, more than ever we can show that good old Mary Washington School Spirit at Freshman Carnival, May Day, the Annual Horse Show, and the Spring Play. With true spirit back of them these events are going to establish unprecedented success.

CARNIVAL COLORS COME TO CAMPUS

So you're going to the Frosh Carnival and wondering what to wear! Well, it really shouldn't be so very difficult. You know the typical carnival colors I'm sure—why red and yellow of course! However, a carnival makes you think of any particularly bright color, and with all the new, bright, and dashing spring shades you're on top.

Skirts and sweaters head the list, (as usual). If you're planning to "swing it", you'd better wear your fullest skirt and many of you have them—so—come on out. The all-around-pleat is next best for dancing and it will be real smart with a contrasting sweater—should we say chartreuse and violet? But definitely!

Perhaps you brought back a gay print from the Easter holidays and as yet the occasion hasn't come for its appearance. Well, here 'tis chilluns! It may be warm in the gym and a thin outfit will prove to your advantage.

Oh dear! Most forgot but not quite! Please remember to wear your bow ribbons, perched on top, in back or with long streamers in velvet, silk or grograin.

This is not for the carnival, but just a note to those of you who have wooden shoes—from "Hollins" comes the idea of your name burnt on the heel of the shoe, either printed or in handwriting. Another note: Seen at "Beaver" College are old saddle shoes, painted in school colors. Some fun!

Be seeing you at the Carnival. Don't forget to wear your brightest clothes, mix 'em or match 'em! The more colors we have, the more Carnival we'll have.

Here's to you!
Ruth Scarlett.

A CHILD — A GARDEN

A saw her in the garden 'mong the flowers
As she stooped to smell and carress each one—
The fairest of them all.
I heard her tinkling laughter,
Her gay, glad cries of joy.
She was freshest of the garden fairies,
Not more than four years old.
So dainty—
From her rosy toes
To her silky, flaxen curls,
O'er-flowing with sunshine,
As she skipped about, investigating, discovering,
Her soft brown eyes quite full of wonder.

I left her there
In that enchanting world—all her own—
For all too soon will she grow up,
And garden flowers give place to bending carcs.

—Dorothea Lewis.

A. A. Holds Annual Dinner

As the highlight of the week, the Athletic Association held its annual formal dinner on Monday night. The affair was held in the Stratford Hotel and was attended by many association members. The spotlight during the evening was held by Mrs. Keyes—or do you still say Miss Kirk? The presence of the bride filled the guests with extra special gaiety which aided in making the banquet successful.

Numerous A. A. letters and numerals were awarded during the dinner. Letters were won by a few upper classmen who had earned the required number of points. The president, Juanita Stokes, presented several freshmen with their numerals. Among these were Ann Pekich, Marguerite Fortmann, Mildred MacPherson, Lois Bowman, and Rebecca Buckingham. Other girls also won numerals but were not present at the banquet.

Alice In Waterland Presented

The A. A. benefit in the form of a water pageant, "Alice in Waterland," took place on Saturday night. One might say that the event went off with a bang! The costumes and lighting effects definitely lent their charm in making the pageant a success.

I hope you girls who are interested in Archery are watching the bulletin boards. Notices of the tournament to be held soon are posted. Those girls having four or more weeks of instruction are eligible. The tournament will take place on Sunday afternoons. In this way the A. A. hopes to increase the number of contestants.

Jeanne Meade and Lucy Dickinson are bound for the U. S. Naval Academy this week-end.

We are glad to welcome Jo Lee Fleet back to school this week-end. We certainly do miss her.

Among those who were at the University of Virginia last week-end at the Easter dances were: Jamie Redwood, Hannah Grahel, Janet Matthews, Barbara Vail, Tess Wilkins, Dot Drumwright, Margie Smith, "Mac" McGavock.

Nancy Mosely was at Annapolis last week-end, too.

Hannah and Lucille have R. M. C. as their old stand-by. They are bound for Ashland again next week-end.

Miss Janet Alston, Beverley Roberts and Donald Holden will remain on the Hill for the week-end.
